Appeal from the United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri

[UNPUBLISHED]

Submitted: March 3, 2000
Filed: March 9, 2000

Before RICHARD S. ARNOLD, FAGG, and HANSEN, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

After his 1997 termination from a tenured professorship at the College of the Ozarks, James Wirth brought this action against the College and many individuals alleging several claims, including breach of contract and religious discrimination. The district court granted summary judgment to the defendants on the contract and discrimination claims, dismissed the remaining claims, and awarded the defendants attorney's fees and costs. Wirth appeals these rulings. Having carefully reviewed Wirth's arguments, the record, the law, and the district court's analysis, we conclude the district court properly rejected Wirth's claims and properly awarded the defendants fees and costs. We have nothing to add to the district court's thorough opinions, and thus affirm without further comment. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
